Josh,

Apologies for my delay. Thank you for your note. Truly an awful situation in Jersey City. The Governor and several of us have been on the ground for the past two days. Thank you again for all your help and important advocacy. Look forward to connecting soon.

Matt, Bill, and Justin,

I'm so sorry and upset about the shooting in Jersey City yesterday. I imagine that you all have your hands full dealing with it now. Know that Brady is ready to assist and support you however we can. Please feel free to reach out if there is anything we can do in the immediate aftermath. As more facts emerge, we're happy to discuss different approaches and solutions.

Best,
Josh

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Everytown for Gun Safety Social Media Campaign

Hi Matt,

I hope all is well with you and your family, and that you've recovered well too! It must have been scary to get that COVID diagnosis.

I'm reaching out on behalf of Everytown for Gun Safety. Everytown is organizing a social media campaign for gun violence awareness day on June 5. Their idea is to mail orange ribbon lapel pins to elected officials, and ask the officials to post a message reflecting the importance of the day. The social media post would be scripted and everything would be coordinated through Everytown. Would Governor Murphy be willing to participate in this campaign? Everytown needs mailing addresses, emails, and confirmation by May 5, if possible. Please let me know!

Thanks very much,

Paul
